OSTEOPATHIC TREATMENT

For Stomach and Bowel Troubles, Nervous Diseases and Diseases of Woman and Children is preeminently successful. Our references are representative citizens—people whom you know. We have no sympathy with those unthinking unorthodoxists, who proclaim Osteopathy a "cure-all." Such con-temptation is unreasonable and commends itself to no right thinking person. We accept only those patients whom we can help—and we help them too. Are you one of them? There is nothing secret or occult in our methods of practice, and we are always ready to explain, as simply as possible, the principles of Osteopathy and what we believe to be the cause of a disease and how we purpose to to treat it. Patients treated at their residence, if desired. Consultation and examination free. Correspondence solicited. Literature on application.

H. WAITE SABIN, Osteopathic Physician, Graduate of American School of Osteopathy

Noyes' residence. The company rehas been doing some very commendable work in the past two weeks and the main streets and the side streets as far as the workers have had time to go, present an appear-may well be proud. It is now up to the property owners to spend a lit-mises and making their property abutting the street compare favorably with the work of the Commissioners.

Many have already done this.

There is good deal being said nowadays about the use of Salt as a fertilizer. We think farmers having worn-out and light soils would do well to read the advertisement of C.
Page 8, which we publish in another column this week.

Death of Mrs. Maria Chaffee

Mrs. Maria Chaffee, widow of the late Dana Chaffee, died suddenly at her home on Elmore street, where she had lived for several years, with her sister, Mrs. S. H. Adams, last Saturday, at about 12:15, from the effects of heart disease. She had been assisting in the housework at the home of R. E. Barrows for a few days and went to her home as usual last Thursday night and was apparently feeling as well as common, but was taken ill in the night, with a heart difficulty and gradually grew worse until the end.

The deceased was born in Enosburg 70 years ago last February and was one of several children, born to David and Cynthia (Walker) Stevens.
In 1872 she was united in marriage to Dana Chaffee, taking charge of the household when the children were small and caring for them during their childhood and remaining on the old homestead until five years ago last March, when her husband died. She is survived by two sisters, Mrs. S. H. Adams and Mrs. Julius Gallup and an adopted brother, Chas.
Stevens of Waterbury. She had no children, but is survived by one stepdaughter, Mrs. C. J. Thomas of this place and two step-granddaughters, Miss Florence Chaffee, Mrs. Ralph L.
Barrows and one step-grandson, Dana Thomas.

The funeral was held from the home Monday afternoon, Rev. P. A. Smith of the M. E. church officiating and interment was in the Laporte cemetery beside her husband. Music was furnished by a choir composed of Rev. Mr. Smith, Miss Vida Ellis, Mrs.
A. A. Niles, Mrs. Charles Raymore and Jesse Waite.

A Sudden Death

Joseph Barbooty, an Italian, who has made his home in the west part of Morrisville for a number of years, died very suddenly at the home of Dana Bumps near Morrisville Corners last Thursday night. The deceased had been living for some time at the Bumps home since returning from Somerset, where he was employed by the Peck Lumber Co. He had been in poor health since returning here and about two weeks before his death suffered a hemorrhage. On the night of his death he was assisting in the milking, when he was taken with a second hemorrhage from the effects of which he died before medical aid could be summoned. He was 32 years of age and leaves no family, the only relative known of, being a brother, whose residence is not known. The body was buried in the Catholic cemetery at Hyde Park Saturday morning.

The Woman's Club have engaged themselves of the opportunity to hear what has been pronounced a most interesting treatment of the subject, entertaining and instructive.

The ladies of the Congregational church will meet to sew next week Wednesday, should the day be fair, or Thursday if not, with Mrs. Orrin Smith on Brooklyn street. Means of transportation will be furnished for those unable to walk, and it is hoped that many will go. If you are unable to sew, come for the social afternoon and pay your ten cents. It will help to swell the parsonage fund just as much. Every one must want to help.
